SHANGHAI STRIKE GROWS. CHINESE SERVANTS NOW OUT. BRITISH HOMES MOSTLY AFFECTED.

(Our Own Correspondent).
Shanghai, June 5.
The situation is unchanged, but with the strike spreading, numerous households are lacking food and other supplies. Householders have had the unaccustomed experience of doing their own work, the cooks, house-boys and coolies vanishing, but the assurance has been reiterated officially that there is no danger of lack of foodstuffs or of the cutting off of essential services.
With the arrival of additional naval contingents, the Settlement defences are believed to be air-tight and ready for any contingency. Machine-guns and light artillery are mounted on high roofs commanding the most important centres, particularly Nanking Road and adjacent roads. The "New World" structures, which are ordinarily thronged with thousands of pleasure-seeking Chinese, are now barracks.
Hotel business generally is crippled by strikes.
The morning papers are issuing abbreviated editions.
The Eastern Extension and Great Northern cable companies are badly crippled, clerks acting as deliverers of messages. The Chinese Telegraph Company is preserving a normal service.
BRITISH SUFFER MOST.
(Our Own Correspondent).
Later.
The strike is spreading. Virtually every foreign concern is more or less affected, but it is noteworthy that the Americans are suffering the least, for while the servants in British homes are generally out, many Americans are unaffected.
Of the staffs of the French and Shanghai Clubs, the latter are striking, while the American Club staff is functioning.
The authorities are translating the documents seized yesterday at the Shanghai University and they say these clearly disclose that the disturbance is basically Communist, nurtured through months, and related directly to numerous labour disturbances.
More raids of suspected Communist establishments are proceeding.
The situation generally is unchanged, and the weather is sultry and overcast.
BRITISH LABOURITES INTERVENE.
London, June 4.
Following the receipt of an appeal for help from the Shanghai strike committee, the council of the British Trade Union Congress has requested the Premier, Mr. Stanley Baldwin, to withdraw the British armed force involved in the Shanghai dispute.
The council will shortly be holding a special meeting to consider the situation.—Reuter.
MINISTER'S REPLY.
Peking, June 4.
The students' attempts to secure a general strike, including shopkeepers, have failed. It is noteworthy that the demonstrations have hitherto almost entirely been anti-British and anti-Japanese.
The Italian Minister, on behalf of the Diplomatic Corps, has replied to the note of the Watchdog (Chinese Foreign Office) declaring that the police only fired when attacked. The responsibility therefore rests with the demonstrators. The reply points out that the Mixed Court, before which the culprits were summoned, released them on bail. The reply hopes the Chinese Government will envisage the incident in the same conciliatory spirit as the diplomats, with a view to restoration of order as soon as possible.—Reuter.
DESPATCH OF TROOPS.
London, June 4.
Reuter learns from well-informed quarters that while the dangerous possibilities of the situation at Shanghai are not minimised, hitherto there has been no united action on the part of the Powers, apart from the despatch of ships and landing of bluejackets and marines. If necessary, further troops could be despatched from Indo-China and Manila, but intervention is not desired and hitherto has not been suggested.—Reuter.
Tokyo, June 4.
The Japanese cruiser Tatsuta has sailed for Shanghai with two hundred marines.—Reuter.
Manila, June 4.
The U.S.S. Jason, with 300 marines, sailed from Cavite for Shanghai yesterday, and will arrive on Sunday.—Reuter.
TELEGRAPHS AFFECTED.
Shanghai, June 4.
Practically all the staffs of the Eastern Extension and Great Northern Telegraphs have joined in the strike.—Reuter.
ANOTHER PROTEST.
Peking, June 4.
The Watchdog has sent another note to the Italian Minister, complaining of further cases of the Shanghai police firing on the people, more of whom have been killed and injured, alleging that the shooting was unjustified and declaring that the attitude of the authorities in Shanghai is causing the strikes, and also urging the representatives of the Powers to send without delay very emphatic instructions to their Consuls to cease the practice of firing, in order to avoid further bloodshed.—Reuter.
BOLSHEVIST INFLUENCE PROVED.
Shanghai, June 5.
The Secretary of the Shanghai Municipal Council says that during raids on the premises occupied by strike leaders the police secured irrefutable evidence that Bolshevik money and activities are behind the present disturbances, and it is further established that the Russians are merely using the Chinese students as tools in their efforts to extend the Moscow programme. The evidence will be made known in due time.
The strike has considerably extended overnight, and few if any "boys" or coolies remain in commercial employment. Foreigners have brought out abridged issues of the morning papers, which estimate that the strikers yesterday evening numbered 150,000.
The strikers are resorting to the old-time Chinese method of threatening the lives and families of workers remaining loyal to foreigners.—Reuter.
RIOTERS FIRED ON.
Shanghai, June 5.
Japanese managers yesterday fired on rioters, wounding five, when a crowd attempted to seize the Japan-China Cotton Mill at Pootung across the Huangpu River. A Japanese inspector and a large force of police drove out the rioters after the windows and furniture were broken. The machinery was not injured.—Reuter.

Peking, June 4.
The following is a translation of the Note handed to the Watchdog this afternoon by the Italian Minister, the senior Minister of the interested Powers:
"I have the honour, in the name of my colleagues and in mine, to acknowledge receipt of the letter dated June 1st which you were good enough to address to me with regard to the disorders which occurred in the International Settlement of Shanghai on May 30th.
While deploring with you the events referred to, during which a certain number of unfortunate victims were killed and others seriously hurt, we believe it is necessary to specify the circumstances under which the police were led to make use of their arms.
Demonstrating groups who were in the act of distributing subversive and clearly anti-foreign pamphlets in the concession on Nanking Road, were requested to disperse, and the leaders were arrested. The crowd, which refused to obey the orders of the police, then attacked them, and attempted an assault on the police station. It was then only that the police made use of their arms. It would therefore result that the responsibility for the events which followed rests on the demonstrators, not the authorities in the concession. On the other hand, subsequently the same authorities gave proof that they were very well disposed, and the Mixed Court, before whom the culprits were summoned, ordered their provisional release on bail.
While awaiting further information, we hope the Chinese Government will continue to envisage this unfortunate incident in the same conciliatory spirit which inspires the interested diplomatic representatives, to the end that order and tranquillity may be re-established in Shanghai with the least possible delay. Signed, Corruiti."—Reuter.
EFFECT IN CANTON.
(Our Own Correspondent).
Canton, June 4.
The Shanghai riots have had some little effect on the Cantonese, for they have held their anti-Imperialist demonstration in the form of a procession of school children who marched past Shamoon and shouted "Down with Imperialism and down with Capitalism." Unfortunately the weather was unkind to them and the procession took place in the pouring rain.
It is predicted that the Shanghai affair will have very little effect on Canton, for at the present time the Cantonese have too much of their own affairs on hand to be bothered with the North.

STEAMERS COLLIDE.

IN CANTON RIVER.
A collision occurred in the Canton river yesterday morning between the river steamer Fatshan and the s.s. Hangcheong. Both vessels were on their way to Canton and we understand that the Fatshan was endeavouring to pass the Hangcheong when she was struck on her port quarter.
The Fatshan has buckled plates, while the Hangcheong has damaged her stem.

INTERPORT BOWLS.

SHANGHAI TEAM COMING.
Hongkong lawn bowls enthusiasts are delighted to learn that Shanghai is sending an Interport team down here in the coming autumn.
Mr. A. MacFarlane, Hon. Secretary of the Hongkong Lawn Bowls Association, has received an intimation that the Shanghai bowlers have accepted Hongkong's invitation to play an Interport match here, and they hope to be in the Colony about the end of September.

CANTON OUTLOOK.

OPPOSITION FOR THE YUNNANESE. RAILWAY STRIKE.

(Our own Correspondent).
Canton, June 4.
An unexpected development has occurred in connection with the critical situation here. General Hsu Sung-chi, who went to the Eastern Front to disperse Chan King-ming's troops for the Government, has decided to return to Canton and to oppose the Yunnanese. So far, he has reached Shoklung with a large force. The Yunnanese Generals decided to march out and oppose his advance, and on Tuesday two battalions of them went to the Railway Station to get transportation to Shoklung. On the approach of these Yunnanese, the railway workers went out on strike, no doubt at the Government's instigation, and to-day the whole of the Chinese section of the Kowloon-Canton Railway is at a standstill.
Not to be beaten, the Yunnanese have started out on foot and are determined to stop the advance of Hsu Sung-chi and are being supported by a battalion of Kwangsi troops.
Developments are expected at any moment and a clash is inevitable. The way things are going now, the situation does not appear to be too rosy for the Yunnanese.
Yunnanese troops are still patrolling the city and the inhabitants are becoming soiled. Valuables are being sent to Shamoon for protection for it is expected that in the event of fighting in the city looting will be rife.

SITUATION EXPLAINED.

Another correspondent writes as follows:
There are so many conflicting reports about the political situation and military operations that one hesitates to write any more than one sees with one's own eyes. The common people are quite as interested as their military leaders at the present moment, for they are in a position to turn the scale one way or the other.

Wu Hon-man, the Civil Governor, has left the city and is living on Honan, where the Cantonese forces are encamped. Canton proper is held by the Kwangsi and Yunnan forces under Lau Tsun-wan and Yeung Hi-man. The Yunnanese are as popular as it is possible for mercenary troops to be, but the Kwangsi troops are decidedly unpopular. It is reported that the Kwangsi leader, Lau, promised to return to the Cantonese some of his ill-gotten gains derived from the cruel taxation which he has forced from the people, but this offer was refused, and the refusal amounted to saying "you may keep it and clear out."

The people have expected a serious split between Lau Tsun-wan and Yeung Hi-man; in fact, it is not more than a month ago that these two men were enemies, with an armed truce existing between them, for financial reasons. But to-day these men are again joined together in a close alliance, for they are both attacked by former opponents who have been preparing and waiting for an opportunity to wipe out old scores.

Lau Tsun-wan is attacked in the west, and Yeung Hi-man is attacked in the East. The city has been partly deserted by the troops, the Kwangsi men going west, and the Yunnan going East. Reports of fighting come from various quarters, but no wounded have been brought back to Canton. The people say that the Yunnanese under Yeung Hi-man will win through and there will be no trouble in the city. On the other hand, they say if Yeung Hi-man is defeated there is certain to be trouble, looting and lawlessness.

The real cause for anxiety arises from the fact that Yeung Hi-man is being attacked by an army educated and trained on Bolshevik lines, led by Russian officers. It is feared that the extreme labour party and even some of the students are in sympathy with the Bolsheviks.

"BRILLIANT" CHANG.

STILL DETAINED HERE.

"Brilliant" Chang was taken back to the House of Detention after his interview with the Secretary for Chinese Affairs yesterday. It is understood that he is given the option of bail whilst the matter of his deportation from Hongkong is under consideration, the decision eventually lying with the Governor-in-Council.
The following was published by the London Daily Chronicle at the time of his deportation from England a few weeks ago, and was headed "King of Dope Traffic Deported":
"Brilliant" Chang, "King" of the London dope traffic, has been deported after serving 12 of the 14 months imprisonment to which he was sentenced at the Old Bailey. The activities of Chang whose real name was Chan Nam, had long been known to Scotland Yard, but he avoided arrest for seven years, although under constant surveillance. At his trial it was stated that he conducted his drug traffic "with such Oriental cunning that it was impossible to get him." Chang came here in 1913 to study chemistry, with a liberal allowance from his father, a Canton merchant. When the war came, and his allowance stopped, Chang turned to the dope traffic. Freda Kempton, the dancing instructor who died from an overdose of cocaine poisoning, was generally regarded as "one of his victims, and his name was mentioned in connection with Billie Carleton's death. After the death of Freda Kempton, Chang disappeared from the West-end, but was soon traced to Limehouse-causway. His arrest followed a statement by a woman whom two detectives saw leave his house, in which a large packet of cocaine was found behind a loose board in the kitchen.

SEIZED PLANES.

STILL HELD HERE.

The two aeroplanes recently seized by officials of the Imports and Exports Office, under cabled instructions from Home, are still lying in the Kowloon Godowns. No decision has been reached as to the disposal of the machines, which were consigned for Tientsin.

LABOUR CONFERENCE.

ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL.

Geneva, June 4.
The Labour Conference has elected a new administrative council, comprising the eight States laid down in the Peace Treaty as the highest industrialised countries in the world namely, France, Germany, Britain, Italy, Belgium, Japan, Canada and India.
The government group also nominated Argentina, Spain, Norway and Poland.
The employers' group chose Messrs. Ithgow (British Empire), Pinot (France), Olivetti (Italy), Carlier (Belgium), Hobac (Czechoslovakia), and Gemmill (South Africa).
The workers' group elected Messrs. Jouhaux (France), Poulton (British Empire), Moore (Canada), Muller (Germany), Oudegeest (Holland) and Thorberg (Sweden).—Reuter.

TRADE UNIONS.

NEW ALLIANCE PROPOSED.

London, June 4.
The executives of eight trade union organisations have met in London, on the invitation of the Miners' Federation, to discuss proposals for establishing a new Labour Alliance for mutual protection.
Mr. Cook, of the Miners' Federation, made an impassioned appeal for unity, but the speakers were generally cautious and reluctant to bind themselves.

The meeting resolved to appoint a committee, consisting of two representatives of each group of industries, to consider the suggestions submitted to the conference.—Reuter.

FOREIGN CONCESSIONS.

OBJECT LESSONS TO CHINA.

We have received the following letter for publication:
Sir,—Allow me, as one who has recently made a trip to North and Central China to offer a few observations on the demand of the Shanghai students that the administration of all concessions and leased territories should be handed over to Chinese authorities. The result of such a procedure would indeed be disastrous, if one is to judge by what has already happened. In the case of Wei-hai-wei there has been an obvious deterioration in the upkeep of the town and harbour since it was handed back to the Chinese by the British under the terms of the arrangement made at the Washington Conference, while a very striking and similar object lesson is to be seen at Hankow. Here, before the war, there were five Concessions, comprising British, Russian, French, German and Japanese. The Russian Concession has been handed back to the Chinese by the Soviet, whilst the German Concession has been Chinese administered since China joined up with the Allies and declared war against the Central Powers. The result to-day is that the old Russian and German Concessions are administered in a disgraceful manner as compared with the other three.
One can easily imagine what Shanghai would be like were its administration left in the hands of Chinese officials. The truth of the matter is that the Chinese are (as yet, at any rate) unfitted to govern on western lines, and the demands of these agitating students become ridiculous. No one would or could deny China's eventual right to govern herself, but until she possesses a moral and upright administrative class capable of undertaking that task, all this talk of the students becomes sheer anti-foreignism of the most dangerous kind. It is as well for us to remember that.
Yours, etc.,
FOREIGNER.

MIKADO'S SON.

ON HIS WAY TO ENGLAND.

IN HONGKONG.

H.R.H. Prince Chichibu, the second son of the Emperor of Japan, arrived in Hongkong to-day on board the cruiser Idzumo, on his way to England to complete his education. He was received by the Governor's A.D.C. (Captain Neville), who went on board the cruiser and accompanied the Prince when the latter landed at Murray Pier and proceeded to Government House with the Japanese Consul-General (Mr. Murakami). The landing was an unofficial one, and there was no military guard of honour at the pier.
The Prince, who is staying with the Japanese Consul-General, leaves to-morrow for the Hakozaki Maru, a special suite having been reserved for His Royal Highness and suite of ten, which includes the Prince's Secretary, Viscount Matsudaira. We are informed that it has been arranged for the Prince, who is 24 years of age, to stay with a distinguished English family in London during the period of two years that he will spend in England in completing his education and generally making himself conversant with conditions in the country.
The cruiser Idzumo, which brought the Prince from Japan via Formosa, will return to Japan on the 10th instant. It is commanded by Captain Shigeoka.

CANTON OIL STRIKE.

SOME LOCAL PROSECUTIONS.

In spite of all that the foreign oil companies have been able to do to make the embargo against the importation of oil into Canton effective, there has been a serious leakage in the form of smuggling, in which a large number of junk owners and individuals have been concerned. It was apparently inevitable that passengers proceeding to Kowloon or Canton by the river boats should find it advantageous to take with them tins of kerosene, and in almost all cases the owners have come within the Hongkong law in that they have omitted to mark a label indicative of the dangerous character of the contents. A number of prosecutions have been dealt with by the Magistrates, junkmasters and mistresses, moreover, have appeared before the Marine Magistrate on charges of having on board dangerous goods, to wit kerosene oil, whilst anchoring in other than the Dangerous Goods Anchorage. Prosecutions of this nature have been hitherto rare in the case of these small craft, and its present frequency can only be explained by the business instincts of these boatpeople to exploit the present situation in Canton to their own profit.

LIGHT AEROPLANES.

Berlin, June 4.
The round-Germany flight of light aeroplanes, which has been proceeding in stages since June 1st, to-day resulted in two crashes.
An Albatross plane crashed at Bamberg; the driver fractured his legs and the machine was demolished. A Caspar plane met the same fate at Wurzburg, the pilot marvellously escaping unscathed.—Reuter.

THE SHANGHAI DISORDERS.RIOTING CEASES WITH CONCENTRATION ON STRIKES.

Later.—Mr. E. Osarnin, Soviet Consul-General, declined to grant an interview but subsequently replied to written questions with a written answer, denying categorically that meetings were held in his Consulate where resolutions supporting the uprising and the students were adopted. He asserts: "The Consulate has no connection whatever with the strike, nor gives instruction to anybody with regard to same. All fictions invented to bind in any way the Consulate with the strike are nothing else than provocation aiming to discredit the Soviet Government."

Peking, June 4.—M. Karakhan, Soviet Ambassador, yesterday addressed the following note to the Foreign Minister: "Having learned with feeling of profound grief of the shooting of several tens of Chinese workers and students at Shanghai, I wish to express to the Chinese people feelings of the deepest sympathy and sorrow, certainly shared by the peoples of the U.S.S.R. I have the honour to request Your Excellency to accept these expressions of my condolences and convey them to the bereaved families.—Reuter."

Duty of Responsible Elements.
Shanghai, June 4.—The rioters seem to be losing faith in frenzied attacks upon foreigners. No collisions are reported to-day, but the strike is spreading.

Two of the morning newspapers estimate that a hundred thousand have walked out, coolies greatly predominating.

The N. C. D. News gives prominence to an article addressed "To the peaceable Chinese of Shanghai." After explaining the situation it says that sooner or later the rioters and agitators will be beaten. Meanwhile life will not be pleasant for anyone, but that will not deter the Foreign authorities and their compatriots from standing firm and doing their utmost to crush the revolt and restore order "How long this threat to your peace, welfare and safety will last depends largely upon you."—Reuter.

London Comment.

London, June 4.—The disturbed conditions in Shanghai are exercising the public mind considerably. The papers unanimously express the opinion that prompt and decisive measures are necessary to restore order, and agree as to the desirability of co-operation and unity among the European Powers to cope with the whole situation in China.

The attitude of Marshal Chang Tso-lin is the subject of much speculation. The Times says the students' movements in Peking and Shanghai are symptomatic of the utter dislocation of the bonds of society threatening a vast empire, and endorses the tribute to the general masses of Chinese paid by Mr. E. S. Mackay at the China Association meeting last month.—Reuter.

Hotel Men Strike.

Shanghai, June 4.—The employees of the Astor House and Majestic walked to-day. The strike is still spreading but reaction among many workers is apparent.

The police this morning raided and closed the Seymour Road school. They found abundant Bolshevik literature. Other red nests were visited and some arrests made.

The rioters are now concentrating on the strike movement which a vast majority of the workers are endeavouring to evade. There were no riots.—Reuter.

Shanghai, June 4.—No attacks on foreigners are reported to-day but the strike is spreading. The newspapers estimate that 100,000 men are out, chiefly coolies.—Reuter.

Peking, June 4.—There were no further student demonstrations to-day. The students yesterday evening saw the Vice-Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and urged a general strike, but he advised against it stating that the Government was doing all that was possible to bring about an amicable settlement of the affair.

The students to-day, in many groups, with flags paraded all the main thoroughfares trying to persuade shopkeepers to agree to strike but there was no disorder yesterday or to-day.—Reuter.

Outbreak in Pootung.

Shanghai, June 5.—The situation is unchanged and all is quiet

NORTH PACIFIC STEAMER FARES.SPECIAL REDUCTIONS.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha have recently established new regulations governing the special reductions for passengers accompanying their families, as well as for passengers travelling in parties, by the company's Seattle steamers.

The reductions are as follows: Family Reductions.—First class passengers travelling between the Orient and the Pacific Coast and vice versa, and accompanied by their families, are allowed a reduction as specified below:

10 per cent. For a family paying the equivalent of 4 adult fares or more.

15 per cent. For a family paying the equivalent of 6 adult fares or more.

N.B. Bona fide tutors, governesses, nurses and other domestic servants shall be considered as members of families, in respect of the application of the above reductions, provided they are travelling in the first class and not under special "Servant Rates."

Party-trip Reductions.—(a) First class passengers travelling in parties between the Orient and the Pacific Coast and vice versa by N.Y.K. steamers shall, according to the numbers, be allowed a reduction on their passage fares as follows:

20 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 15 adult fares or more.

25 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 20 adult fares or more.

(b) Third class passengers travelling in parties between Japan and ports of call and Pacific Coast and vice versa by N.Y.K. steamers shall be allowed a reduction on their passage fares specified as follows:

10 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 20 adult fares or more per steamer.

15 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 35 adult fares or more per steamer.

20 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 40 adult fares or more per steamer.

25 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 50 adult fares or more per steamer.

20 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 20 adult fares or more per steamer and 50 adult fares or more per two steamers.

25 per cent. For a party paying the equivalent of 20 adult fares or more by more than two steamers.

except for minor outbreaks. The most serious development is the meeting of Chinese police at Chapei who decided to strike, but when the hour arrived a mere handful out of the 2,000 attached to the settlement department turned in their arms. It is believed duty.

The efforts of the agitators to force a strike of the Chinese firemen has failed. It is reported that five were wounded across Whangpoo in a Pootung outbreak at the China and Japan Cotton Spinning and Weaving Mill when a mob attacked the Japanese overseers who resisted and opened fire after the offices had been invaded. The Chinese constabulary later dispersed the rioters.

Strikes at industrial plants are spreading slowly. It is estimated that 50,000 men are out.

American Jazz musicians in the leading Hotel are substituting the waiters of the Astor House which hotel is the most seriously affected. The weather is clear.—Our Own Correspondent.

Shanghai, June 4.—The Chinese Bankers' Association and the Native Banks Guild to-day announced in the Chinese Press that they were temporarily suspending business, beginning on the 3rd.—Reuter.

Shanghai, June 4.—The Student Union has decided to circularize a telegram to all military leaders requesting them to stop their military movements, but unanimously to turn their attention against foreigners. They also propose the formation of a student volunteer corp.

On the evening of the 2nd the Diplomatic Corps held a conference regarding the protest of the Waihiaopu. They decided first to wire to their respective governments for instructions and to order the Consular Body at Shanghai to be cautious for the time being.—Tsun Wan Yat Po.

HONGKONG BASEBALL LEAGUE ARRANGEMENTS.

A meeting of the Hongkong Baseball League was held at the United States Consulate General last evening, for the purpose of outlining a programme for the forthcoming season. Representatives of the following clubs were present: Hongkong V.D.C., South China A.A., Japanese Baseball Club, Indian R.C., Filipino Club, and Hongkong University. No representative of the Club de Recreo attended.

Mr. M. B. Keenahan, acting Secretary of the League, briefly reviewed the activities of last season and sketched out a programme for the guidance of the incoming committee, as to the probable expenditure and income and detailed arrangements so far as they had already progressed for this year. He suggested that each club should contribute the sum of $100 to defray initial expense, the principal item of which was the erection of the grand stand at the approximate cost of $500. Mr. Alonzo representing the Filipino Club moved that the sum be reduced to $50, and accepting an amendment that another $50 be available at call, his motion was approved by the meeting.

Mr. June, representing the South China A.A., agreed to conduct the negotiations for the erection of a grand stand according to the plan approved by the P.W.D. in previous years, with the addition of a dressing room beneath, which was the outcome of a suggestion by Mr. Alonzo.

The election of officers was then proceeded with and resulted in the unanimous vote of the meeting that Mr. Latie be President of the League, Mr. June the Hon. Sec., and Mr. Sling representing the Hongkong University, Hon. Treasurer.

It was decided that the arrangements for the sale of season tickets be as before, namely that 60 be allotted to each club; the proceeds of which would be devoted to equipment. Any additional tickets disposed of would be considered as a contribution to League funds.

An allocation of grounds for next week was decided upon by arranging a series of practice matches as under:

Saturday (June 6), Hongkong v. South China.

Tuesday, Filipinos v. Hongkong University.

Wednesday, Hongkong v. Japanese.

Thursday, Indian R. C. v. Hongkong Volunteers.

Monday and Friday were left vacant.

The first League game of the season is scheduled for Saturday, June 13, but arrangements, upon which the acquisition of another ground depends, are left in the hands of the Committee, composed of President, Hon. Sec., and Hon. Treasurer.

On the motion of Mr. Keenahan, the meeting passed a unanimous vote of thanks to "Whitesox" as the press representative of the Hongkong Baseball League for his voluntary efforts towards the furtherance of the game in Hongkong, which the mover was glad to say, had contributed in no small way to the stimulation of interest which was so evident this season.

TO AVOID PAIN AFTER EATING.

Thousands who have tried it, including many people in this Colony say that the surest way to avoid pain and discomfort after eating is to take two or three tablets of Bisurated Magnesia after each meal. This prevents food fermentation and the resultant formation of gas and acid, and enables even the worst dyspeptics to eat almost anything without follow. It pain has already started, or in cases of acute digestive weakness, Bisurated Magnesia acts almost like magic usually bringing complete relief in five or six minutes. If you want to enjoy your meals get a package of wonderful Bisurated Magnesia tablets and take as directed; all chemists sell this honest cure and the chances are 100 to 1, if you take as directed, that you'll soon be telling your friends at Bisurated Magnesia, is the finest thing in the world for indigestion. Try it and see for yourself, but be sure to see the oval Bismag sign or the package when buying.

THE CORONET.

"BE YOURSELF," SAYS MARY PICKFORD'S DIRECTOR.

Marshall Neilan, director of Mary Pickford in her newest screen production for United Artists, "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," which is now having an extended run at the Coronet Theatre, is a great believer in the necessity of putting into a picture the little touches of every-day life. "Make them say, 'Isn't that natural?' and the success of your picture is assured," declared Mr. Neilan.

"In making 'Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall' we have endeavored to present characters that are real. After all, the people who lived in the sixteenth century were, every bit as human as we are to-day, and because the costumes happen to be different, there is no reason why the picture should seem stiff and unnatural. Dorothy Vernon was just a human being who worked and played, the same as Mary Pickford does in her daily life. Because Miss Pickford is her own self, her interpretation of the title role is so natural, devoid of the stiffness and uneasiness common in so-called costume pictures."

"WERE WONDERFUL DURING HER TEETHING."

More Praise for Baby's Own Tablets from India.

"Thank to Baby's Own Tablets my baby Josephine has been cured of constipation and worms. They were wonderful during her teething period," writes Mrs. Irene Mendoza, of Rose Cottage, Vile Parle, Bombay.

Mothers everywhere who once try Baby's Own Tablets for their little ones never want to be without them again, they are so surely and speedily helpful in so many of the ailments of childhood. The first thing they do is to gently move the bowels, banishing constipation and colic, or checking diarrhoea by removing its cause. Then they sweeten the stomach, aid digestion, improve the appetite, cool feverishness, calm the nerves, induce sound refreshing sleep.

Absolutely pure and good, Baby's Own Tablets can be given with perfect safety even to the youngest infant. Chemists sell them, or post free, 60 cents the vial, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangsee Road, Shanghai.

RUSSIAN DEBTS.

GERMAN COURTS DECISION.

Berlin, June 4.
The creditors of the Russian banks before the revolution are likely to be interested in an important decision by the Prussian Supreme Court.

The Russian Industrial Bank owed a Berlin banking firm eight hundred thousand gold marks. The latter sought to recover the sum from the Deutschebank, who possessed a deposit belonging to the Russian Industrial Bank. The Court has ordered the Deutschebank to pay, after taking an expert opinion, which accorded with the British House of Lords' last year.—Reuter.

COBHAM'S MISHAP.

AFTER LONG IMMUNITY.

London, June 4.
After a remarkably long immunity from flying, Mr. Alan Cobham has met with an accident.

He was accompanied by Mr. Edwards, the deputy director of civil aviation, and was flying to Berlin in a baby plane, a De Havilland "New Moth," on which he recently flew from London to Zurich and back, but had to make a forced landing in Middelbarn, Holland.

Both pilot and passenger were uninjured, and are continuing their journey by train with the object of seeing the important light aeroplane competitions in Berlin.—Reuter.

NOTE TO GERMANY.

PREVIOUS REPLIES QUOTED.

Berlin, June 4.
Replying to Lord D'Abernon's address when presenting the Note on disarmament, Herr Luther referred to the German replies to the Allied Notes last January in which the German standpoint on the question of the evacuation of Cologne was laid down.

He said that the Government would immediately consider the new Note, after which it would decide further measures.—Reuter.

HOME CRICKET.

GLOUCESTER VS. SUSSEX.

London, June 4.
At Bristol, Gloucester beat Sussex by three wickets. Sussex scored 123, and then 118; Parker taking 6 for 37 and Bennett 6 for 44.

Gloucester compiled 145, and then 97 for 7, Tate taking 7 for 58 and 5 for 36.—Reuter.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.

BARTHELMISS IN "SONNY."

Motion picture fans, who have come to expect the unusual in character delineation from Richard Barthelmess, are said to be in for more splendid entertainment when "Sonny," the latest production to be made for Associated First National Pictures, Inc., comes to the Queen's theatre to-day. As in his previous pictures, Barthelmess has taken for his leading character a very simple and human figure and endowed him with an intense appeal.

While the star is said to have a dual interpretation in "Sonny," it is with the figure of Joe Peter that the story mostly concerns itself. Joe is a product of the Hoboken saloons, poolrooms and waterfront. Born in squalor and educated by such knowledge as he has been able to glean through contact with the roughest kind of associates, he finds himself suddenly thrust into the most luxurious and cultured surroundings.

His new position is due to one of the strangest and pathetic freaks of the war. He finds that he not only has to accustom himself to the elegance of affluence, but also to palliate a blind "mother" who touches his heart strings in a manner that no other human being has ever been able to.

From this unique situation the story develops a drama of tense interest combining the pathos of "Broken Blossoms" with the stirring appeal of "Tillie's Punctured Romance," but centering around characters entirely different from those presented in Barthelmess' former picture.

THE INDUSTRIAL HOME.

QUESTION OF SURROUNDINGS.

The delayed Industrial Home project is likely to be subject to further delay, now that the promoters have more or less abandoned the site at Stanley; but interest in the scheme has not flagged in the least, showing the enthusiasm and determination of the sponsors.

As stated in these columns recently the site at Stanley was found unsuitable after the Secretary for Chinese Affairs and a party of Chinese gentlemen visited a similar home at Macao. Various reasons are given for the abandonment of the site, but it is rumoured that the real actuating force is proximity of the site to the new St. Stephen's College, which is being built. It being essentially a working home, any observation which the boys may have made of the easy, and perhaps luxurious style of living of the ordinary school boys may be injurious to impressionable minds.

Though the site has been abandoned the promoters have not allowed grass to grow under their feet. With the Secretary for Chinese Affairs they have visited several places in search of a site. At Pokfulam the S. C. A. pointed out a piece of grassy land, which he said the Government might be able to give out. It is at present part of the Dairy Farm property, and the transfer, if it is arranged, will probably involve negotiations with the owners. The Chinese promoters all consider it good a choice and have urged the S. C. A. to take the matter in hand. The new site is easy of access from the big road.

LONDON BEAUTY SPOT.

Selsdon Wood to be Purchased.

Steps to purchase Selsdon Wood, a beauty spot a few miles south-east of Croydon, where the nightingale sings and columbine blooms, are being taken by the Commons and Footpaths Preservation Society. It is intended that the wood should be kept as a nature preserve.

The wood, which is only 12 miles from the heart of London, is an ideally secluded spot in the middle of the triangle formed by the villages of Sanderstead, Addington, and Farley. Its area is 107 acres.

This part of Surrey, the chalk hill country through which the Brighton road runs, has developed rapidly during the present century, and it is desired to buy the wood immediately to save it from the builders.

It is proposed to enclose the wood to protect the natural life from trippers as well as professional gatherers of birds eggs and wild plants.

Selsdon Wood is particularly rich in birds and flowers.

Among birds to be found there are the nightingale, nuthatch, cole tit, blue woodpecker, flycatcher, and some 40 rarer kinds.

Flowers include the rare herb Paris, autumn crocus, columbine, bluebells, primrose, and common woodland flowers.

While it is proposed to protect the ground from trippers, the public will probably still be able to walk through the wood at their pleasure.

The land has been offered at £30 an acre—£3,210 in all—subject to the provision that the public subscribes the purchase money before the end of July.

The Commons and Footpaths Preservation Society has already been promised £400, and further subscriptions should be sent either to the society at 7 Buckingham Palace Gardens, London, S. W. 1, or to Miss A. Bonus Sarum, Radcliffe-road, Croydon.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

LAST WEEK'S FIGURES.

During last week one Chinese died of diphtheria one of cerebro-spinal fever and two of small-pox. There was also a death from influenza.

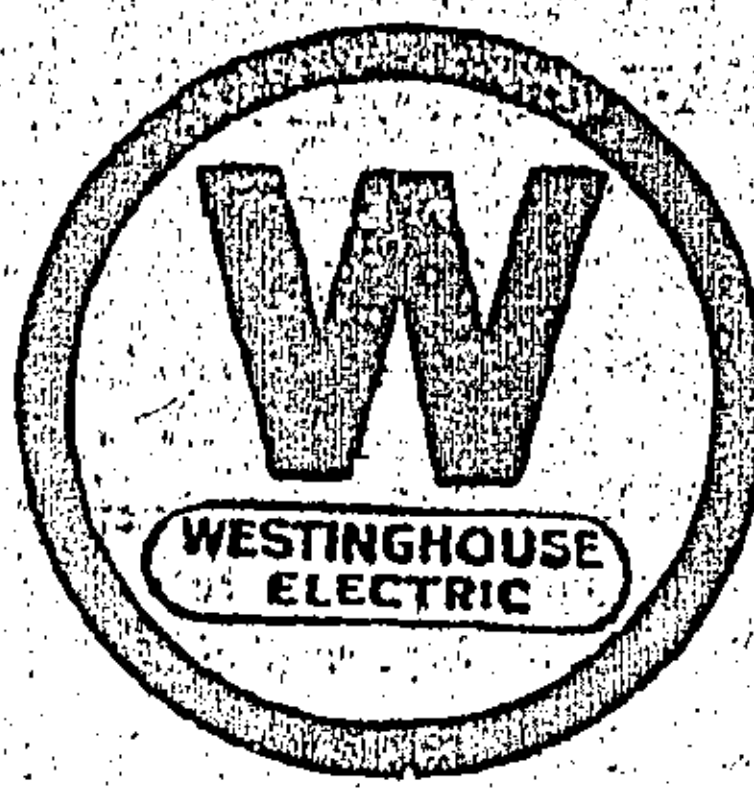

Of two cases of enteric (one fatal) one was Chinese and one Indian.

For Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, the report shows one case of enteric and one of cerebro-spinal fever, both Chinese.

CHINESE ANOMALIES.

So used are people out here to the contrasts formed by the display of wealth on the one hand and pitiful poverty on the other, that little comment is caused when ostentatious extravagance occurs amidst scenes of the worst squalor, as when half-starved looking coolies in tattered garments are hired to carry part of the furnishings
of a big wedding procession.

One sees more of this in the outports, though Hongkong occasionally offers some striking effects along these lines. The recent inauguration of a thrift campaign here has some connection with this matter, as encouraging less expenditure by wealthy people on themselves and a correspondingly greater amount on the poor who exist in such multitudes around them.
Outside the Far East, however, it is naturally difficult to accept such contrasts unmoved, for the advance of democracy in the West has done away with much of the abject servitude of past centuries, which is still reflected in Chinese everyday life. Even more difficult must it be, then, to accept the Oriental principle that display, however expensive, is necessary at times, otherwise one loses standing, "face," and all else which counts for rank in the East. This will explain the adverse comments which have been caused at Geneva, as reported in a news message yesterday, by the giving of a huge and very expensive banquet by the Chinese delegation, while China remains in arrears with her subscriptions and loan instalments, and has to accept outside aid for her famine-stricken populace.

Yet it is impossible to condemn the Chinese representatives for their act, which was merely based on age-long custom; and the criticism savours of absolute ignorance of Eastern social life. At the same time, it shows how observers are beginning to take stock of China's actions, and how little she can afford to continue her wasteful expenditure, not merely on official dinners given abroad, but on an army of useless hangerson, masquerading patriots, and rival war lords. One can forgive a little extravagance in entertaining friends and acquaintances occasionally, but the criminal throwing away of treasure which is going on in China itself can never be condoned, nor can one but deplore the accumulation of debts on credit, for sooner or later the country will have to pay the reckoning, the greatest burden falling on those who received least benefit from the golden stream while it lasted.

Propaganda.

Despite the unsettled conditions prevailing in Canton, some-one there still finds time in which to "propagandise" on behalf of the Government and the Kuomintang Party. A recent issue of the Canton Gazette contains several columns of a manifesto attributed to the General Chamber of Commerce and associated merchants' organisations, the main burden of which is to praise the Government and to dispute the alleged absorption of the Kuomintang Party by Soviet Russia. How disinterested and impartial the authors of this manifesto are may be gathered, incidentally, from the fact that they describe Chan King-min and his followers as "rebels," thus revealing the cloven hoof very effectually. The Government, says this manifesto,
is not carrying out Communism, and it goes on to explain that the friendliness of the Government and the Kuomintang towards the Soviet is simply due to the latter's cancellation of all "unequal Treaties." How very simple it all is, when once explained. The recent stories of the spread of Communism in Canton are, of course, sheer imagination; they are attributed by the authors of this manifesto to the "Hongkong Lie Factories." It is noteworthy, however, that there is no specific reputation of the allegations recently made by Mr. Ma So—no denial of the statement that the Kuomintang has been financed from Moscow, or that
M. Borodin is the leading spirit behind the scenes of government in Canton. Neither is it disputed that Russians are largely employed in military circles there.

"Liberty"

If this manifesto, as alleged,
comes from Chinese merchants,
we should have thought that they would not have bothered themselves with political issues.
Yet we have them supposedly demanding that the Government get rid of all obstacles in the path of "real Democracy," and pleading for various governmental and military reforms. Moreover, they are represented as asking for "perfect freedom of speech, publication and right of association and gatherings." The inference, of course, is that no such freedom is now enjoyed—and obviously it is not. No;
the Kuomintang idea of liberty,
as we explained the other day (and as the Party itself asserted) is freedom limited to the orders of the organisation.
Any other type of liberty would be looked on askance. If we know anything of the Chinese merchant class, whether in Canton or elsewhere, it is that nothing is more desired than peace and good order, so that business can be carried on without interruption. "Democracy" and "freedom," as conceived by the politicians, does not enter into their minds; they wish to be free of political agitations and the effects thereof. These and other facts make us doubt whether any representative body of Chinese merchants would bother to issue such an obviously inspired manifesto as the one under notice. The whole thing looks very unconvincing.

SELVES.—Napoleon.

There was a clean bill of health
in the Colony yesterday.

His Excellency the Governor is to lay the foundation stone of the new building of St. Paul's Girls' College to-morrow afternoon.

Damage to the extent of $200
was caused to a junk in a collision with the steam launch *Man
Yee* in the harbour yesterday.
No-one was injured.

Amongst the passengers who arrived by the Empress of Australia were Mr. and Mrs. N. I.
Brewer, Mr. J. P. Braga, Mr. E.
Danenberg and Mr. G. Grimbie.

The T.K.K. liner Siberia Maru, on her first "Express Service" to trip from Yokohama to San Francisco, made the voyage in 11 days and 21 hours—15 hours before the scheduled time.

Mr. T. M. Gregory, an old and well-known resident of the Colony, is leaving for Europe tomorrow on the Hakozaki Maru, on a combined business and pleasure trip, being accompanied by his wife.

Our Picture Page to-morrow will include several photographs taken at the Defence Corps sports;
a group of Surrey regimental bugle-war champions; a photograph of H. Braga, University sprinter, the Colony's 220 yards champion;
and pictures of the American tennis stars and Shanghai players whom they recently met.

The aerated waters store of Messrs. A. S. Watson and Company, at No. 37 Connaught Road Central, was broken into the night before last by a thief who secured entry by removing two panes from a back window. He stole from a drawer in the office a sum of $20. A report has since been made by the chief clerk, Mr.
Peter Wong, to the police.

Mr. W. C. Bunter, president of the Abbott School of Aviation, writes us in regard to the aeroplane mishap in the New Territories, stating that the machine was a newly-constructed three-seater, and that it was not the plane from which the late Mr. Barnshaw met his death.
This latter was the "Felix," which is still in the service of the Aviation School.

Armed robbers broke into the Ngchaukoo import and export firm, in Kowloon Street, about midnight yesterday, and, by means of a generous display of arms, succeeded in covering the inmates, who were forced to surrender the keys, with which the robbers were enabled to obtain access to a safe from which a sum of $1,110 was extracted. They escaped in an unknown direction.

One of the world's most famous vocalists in the person of Miss Mabel Garrison is due to give a concert at the City Hall to-night when there will doubtless be a large and enthusiastic audience. Miss Garrison's programme includes excerpts from some of the most famous operas and also a number of songs and ballads. An especially attractive feature is the group of folksongs with which the concert will be concluded.

Another big success was registered by the "Our Cabaret"
company at the Star Theatre, Kowloon, last night, when, in the presence of large audience, a most enjoyable programme was submitted. The lady artists were all in excellent form, whilst Jan Carlyll and Rene Delysee made a great hit with their numbers. Frank Milne was also extremely funny. There will be a new programme to-night.

may be mentioned that all official announcements and important information of commercial interest of the Hongkong Chinese will, by special arrangement already entered into, be exclusively published in the columns of the *Overseas Chinese every success.

PLAY AND PLAYERS.

PRELIMINARIES: GOOD PROGRAMME.

By "Wanderer."

Andre Dupre commenced fights have been won in the first round.

BASEBALL.
Baseball has received a decided fillip in the Colony this season and seven clubs were represented at last evening's annual meeting of the Baseball League. The Hongkong team, Volunteer team, and the teams of the South China A. A., the Japanese B. C.,
the Indian R. C., the Philippine Club, and the University, have all been at practice and the signs are that no club will be allowed to run away with the championship this year.

It was pleasing to see eighteen members of the H. V. D. C. turning out for last night's practice game and several of the players with previous knowledge showed up extremely well. They are to practice catching at headquarters
this evening.

It might be as well to mention for the information of a baseball scribe that "razzing" or "blaa-blaa," whichever was one likes to put it, was freely indulged in, though there is, I am told, no truth in the rumour that they are considering the appointment of a professional coach in this phase of the game.

PRELIMINARY BOUTS.

(EXCLUSIVE).
Subject, of course, to permission of the Army and Navy authorities, the following contests will form the preliminary part of the programme for June 13th's tournament:

Mr. H. Major v. Drummer
Bowles.

P. O. Meen, Tamer, v. A. B.
Ringham, Iriquois.

Stoker Thomson, Titania, v. Pte.
Eaton.

L/Stoker Piper, Submarines, v.
Pte. Mann.

All things considered it is difficult to conceive a better programme. Mr. H. Major, (formerly Corpl. Major) and Drummer Bowles, are two of the best men round about their weight overturned out by the East Surrey Regiment, though, strange as it may seem, they have never yet met in the roped square. Drummer Bowles is in great form just now and he should be able to make Major go all the way.

Eaton and Thomson contested
the final of the middleweight championship of the V.R.C. and after the judges had disagreed
Thomson was given the verdict.
The fight on that occasion was marked by useless clinching but Eaton appears to have given up his boring in habits of late and he should be able to reverse the decision over a longer distance.

P. O. Meen gained a clever win in three rounds over A. B. Ring-ham, a hard-hitting fighter from the Iriquois, when they met in the final of the welterweights at the V.R.C. Ringham was gaining the upper hand as the fight proceeded on that occasion and he is anxious to meet Meen over the longer distance. The men are an excellent contrast in styles and a good fight is sure to materialise.

Piper has come on amazingly well during the last twelve months and he should be able to beat Mann, who, though he is one of those men whom it is always a pleasure to see in the ring, has not in my opinion the necessary punch to go far with the stoker.

It is also hoped to arrange a contest in which Pte. Williamson will appear. Williamson has been walking through the Surrey lightweights, and most of his

KING'S BIRTHDAY.

SHAMEEN CELEBRATIONS.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Shameen, June 4.
The King's Birthday was celebrated in the usual manner by Shameenites yesterday. At 10 a.m. Divine Service was held at Christ Church, Shameen, the Rev.
C. I. Blanchett, C.M.S., preaching.
Many of Shameen residents,
together with naval forces
attended.

From 11 a.m. to noon a reception was held by His Britannic Majesty's Consul General, Sir
James Jamieson, K.C.M.G.,
L.L.D., at the British Consulate General and was attended by practically every Shameen resident. Notable absentees were the Chinese officials, who, in previous years, attended in all their pomp and glory. At noon the toast to the King was given and shortly afterwards all adjourned to the Canton Club where the British residents were at home to all their friends. The toast to the King was again given and afterwards dancing took place until 2.30.

In the evening, Sir James Jamieson held an official dinner at which all the Consular representatives and Naval officers were present and at 9.30 p.m. an impromptu dance was held in the Canton Club Theatre and was kept up until the early hours of the morning.

21 YEARS AGO.

THE MATILDA HOSPITAL.

The most interesting item of news appearing in the Telegraph during the week ended June 4th, 1904, relates to legal proceedings over the will of the late Mr. Granville Sharp. The issue of June 2nd contains several columns of the report of the case, in which the parties were Messrs. E. H. Sharp, J. Buchanan, H. Sharp and R. Bentham, together with Ellen Lydia Bentham, on one side, and the Bishop of Victoria (Dr. Hoare), the Rev. F. T. Johnson, the Rev. C. H. Hickling and the Attorney General, on the other. The latter, with the exception of the Attorney General, were appointed by the deceased as committee and trustees of a hospital which the late Mr. Sharp desired to erect; and the proceedings now reported were instituted to determine certain questions in connection therewith. Some of the points upon which a decision was required were the nature and scope of the hospital, and whether the unexhausted portion of the estate was applicable to charitable purposes generally.

It was stated in Court that the deceased, by his will, left certain legacies amounting to £1,600 to various friends and relatives and also a number of life annuities amounting to £300 a year, after which the residue of the estate was left in trust for the erection and maintenance of a hospital at Mount Kollott on the Peak, this institution to be named the Matilda Hospital, after his wife's first name. The deceased wished the hospital to be self-supporting and to be considered "as an absolutely religious and evangelistic institution." He further directed that it must be maintained "for the glory of God and the good of man, and not for the glory of the medical profession in any way," adding that it was emphatically to be a hospital "for the poor, the helpless, the forsaken, and for him who is alone and desolate." The institution was to be reserved for British, American and European patients, and the sisters were to be wholly British. As a reward for diligence, the sisters were to be given a year's holiday every five years, on full pay, or, still better, two holidays of six months each during that period. The deceased wished the least possible use to be made of drugs, but that all sanitary and other precautions be taken, "and that upon these and the healing processes of nature by God's assistance the greatest reliance may be placed."

It was further stated in Court that the value of the deceased's estate was about £1,300,000 and that in 1901, Rural Building Lot 16 was purchased as a site for the hospital at £70,000, erection being since proceeded with. The Chief Justice made a lengthy order, holding that the residuary bequest was a good charitable bequest, that the executors and trustees should proceed with the hospital project in accordance with deceased's instructions and that the unexhausted portion of the estate should be applied to charitable purposes.

TO-NIGHT'S CONCERT

This is Mabel Garrison, the famous soprano, who is to be heard at the Théâtre Royal to-night.

OTHER ITEMS.

Other items appearing during the week under notice are to the following effect:—

In the final round of the Captain's Cup Competition of the Golf Club, Dr. Drew, R.N., beat T. C. Gray by one up.

Mr. John Roberts, the former billiards champion, played matches against Mr. C. M. P. Remedios, Mr. J. A. Carvalho and Mr. A. G. Stokes. Conceding many points, he won two of the three contests, Mr. Remedios beating him by 600 to 544 in a game in which 400 points were conceded.

The annual report of the China Light and Power Co., Ltd., stated that delay was experienced in installing machinery at Canton, but that two engines were running and some profits being made, whilst the field in Kowloon was not so promising as was hoped.

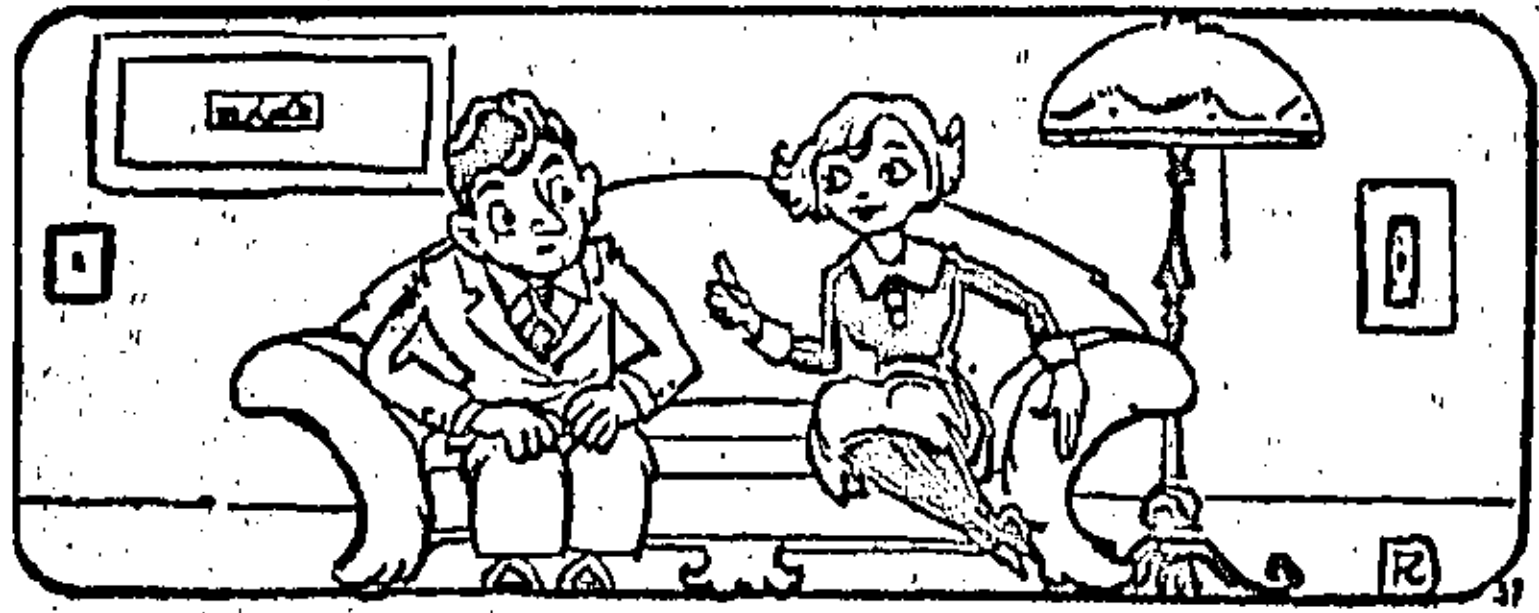

The annual meeting of the V. R. C. resulted in the amendment of rules regarding subscription rates and the appointment of Mr. A. Chapman as Chairman and Mr. H. Austen as Hon. Secretary.

Sir Paul Chater, presiding at the annual meeting of the Star Ferry Co. Ltd., stated that the accounts included a figure of $36,550, representing the difference between the written down value of the "Morning Star" and the "Guiding Star" and the price at which they were sold. He added that arrangements were practically completed by which the ferry wharf at Kowloon would be moved further south, opposite a new 100 foot road, with the result that residents would no longer have to thread their way through a maze of cargo work.

LAST LINE LIMERICK CONTEST.

The third week of our Last Line Limerick Competition is now in progress. A prize of $10 is offered for the best last line. Competitors should remember that the last line must rhyme with the first two. The result of last week's contest will appear on our issue of to-morrow.

Last Line for This Limerick Must Reach the Telegraph Office by Noon on Monday, 8th June, 1925. Envelopes must be marked "Limerick."

OBITUARY.

NOTED FRENCH ASTRONOMER.

Paris, June 4.
The death has occurred of the noted astronomer, Camille Flammarion.—Reuter.

The death of M. Camille Flammarion removes one of the world's great men of science. Born as long ago as 1842, in the Haute Marne, the famous astronomer as he later became received his chief education at the Paris Observatory, under Le Verrier, and afterwards at the Sorbonne under Delaunay and at the Bureau des Longitudes. He founded the monthly review L'Astronomie in 1882, the Observatory of Juvigny in 1883, and the Astronomical Society of France in 1887.

He published a large number of works on Astronomy, and in later years turned to a study of psychic matters, writing a book on "Mysterious Psychic Forces" (1907), a three part work on "Death and Its Mystery" (completed in 1922), and "Dreams of an Astronomer" (1923). Most of his work has been translated into English. He was made a Commander of the Legion of Honour a few years ago.

In 1919, at the age of 77, M. Flammarion was married for the second time, to a Madlle. Gabrielle Renaudot.

WELL-KNOWN WRITER.

Paris, June 4.
The death is announced of M. Pierre Louys.—Reuter.

M. Pierre Louys was a distinguished writer of distinguished heritage. A grand nephew of the Duke of Abrantes, he was also a great-grandson of the famous Sabatier, president of the Institut de France and surgeon in ordinary to Napoleon the First.

M. Louys was born in 1870 and was educated in Paris. He gave early promise of his literary ability, founding the review La Conquête when 19 years of age. To this Swinburne, Verlaine, and Maeterlinck, among others, were contributors. The earliest of his noted works was "Astro" (1892), but it was his "Aphrodite" (1896) that became most famous, obtaining the greatest circulation ever reached by any living writer in France—350,000 copies were printed, not including numerous translations and adaptations.

SHAMEEN OUTRAGE

QUESTION OF APOLOGY AND INDEMNITY.

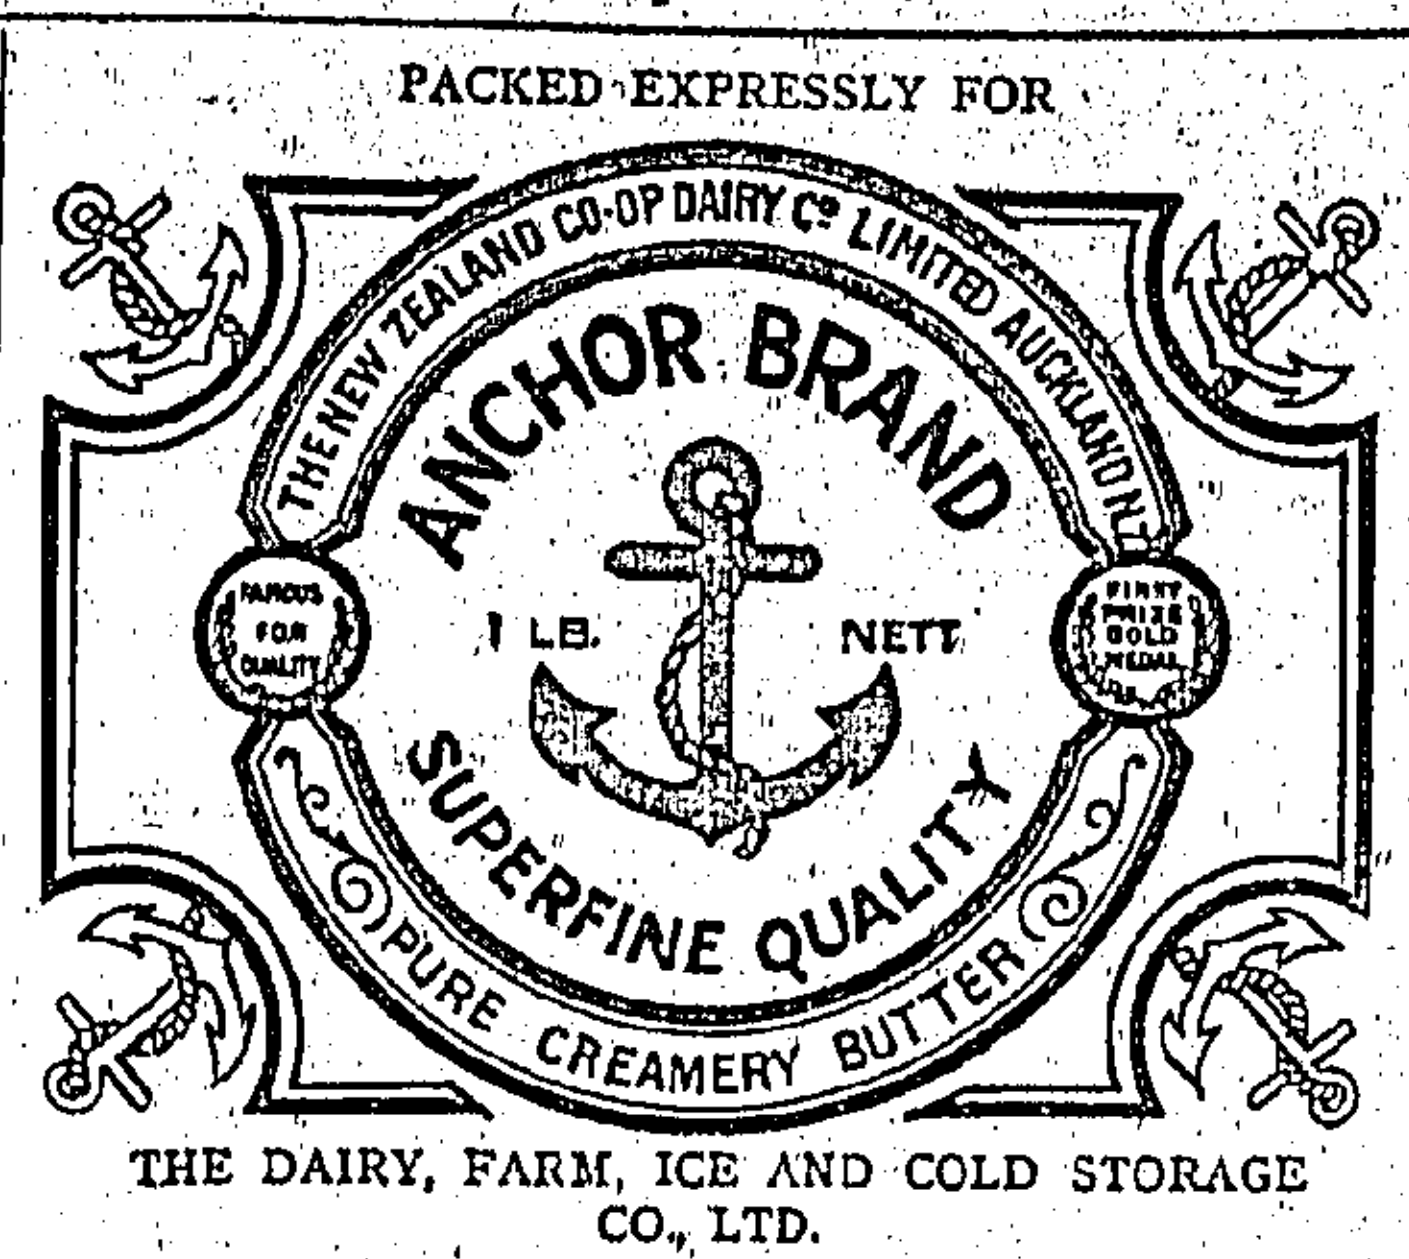

Paris, June 4.
In the Chamber, M. Outrey, Deputy for Indo-China, notified his intention to interpellate the Government in connection with its protest to the Chinese Government regarding the monument erected at Canton by Annamite revolutionaries in memory of the Annamite who threw a bomb at M. Merlin in June, 1924, killing five and wounding eight French people.

M. Outrey, accepting M. Briand's request for postponement of his interpellation, pointed out that since the outrage the Government had not obtained from the Chinese Government any apology or indemnity. He described the erection of the monument as an insult to France. M. Outrey also said he hoped the Government would take action as regards the Soviet Government, in connection with M. Karakhan's alleged statement on the morrow after the outrage expressing satisfaction at its perpetration.

M. Briand replied that if the authenticity of M. Karakhan's words were proved, the Government would insist on respect for engagements with France.—Reuter.

[Prize-Winning Terrier.

This is "Bobbie," the fourteen-months-old fox terrier owned by Mr. W. Palmer, of Shanghai, who won the first prize in the fox terrier class at the recent Dog Show. If it were not for the restraining leash "Bobbie" would be dashing across the lava in search of fun and mischief.

Shanghai Canadians Foregather at Dinner.

Members of the Canadian Association of Shanghai met at the Majestic Hotel recently, when a delightful dinner was given, followed by dancing. The photographer has secured a good picture of the guests in the beautiful Winter Garden of the Hotel.

At Shanghai's Dog Show.

The photographer has snapped some interested visitors to the Shanghai dog show, which was attended by many hundreds of dog lovers. Dr. Gauntlett is seen holding his dog "Caesar," a four-year-old wire-haired terrier which was awarded the first prize in the Wire-Haired Terrier Class. Mrs. Gauntlett is nearby with her little son on her knee.

TEACHINGS OF
MOHAMMED.LECTURE AT THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

At last Wednesday's public meeting of the Hongkong Lodge of the Theosophical Society, Mr. S. Haroon, the Hon. Secretary of the Young Men's Islamic Society, lectured on "The Teachings of Mohammed." He said in part:—Most faiths centre in a great personality, and this is especially true of Islam. Its Founder, the Prophet Mohammed, was born A. D. 570, in Mecca, and his life being lived out in the seventh century of the Christian Era, in times considered historical, almost every detail of his life is known, and there is no mythical element which surrounds this great Prophet. Arabia about the time of Mohammed's birth, was in a state of religious unrest and political chaos. Men's morals were low and everywhere throughout Arabia there flourished cruel idolatry. The time had come for a great social and religious regeneration, and it was the Prophet Mohammed who was the chosen instrument to bring this about, which he did with such success that within twenty years of his death Arabia was transformed from darkness and ignorance into a kingdom of light and knowledge.

Until manhood, Mohammed was in poor circumstances, tending flocks of sheep and assisting his uncle in business. Marrying at the age of twenty a wealthy widow who was 15 years his elder, he became a man of wealth and position. For twenty years they lived a blessed and happy married life. During this time ideas on religion assumed an increasingly earnest tone, and his quiet outer life was full of terrible inward struggle. He spent a large part of his time in lonely and deep meditation in the desert and the hills. However, not until he was forty years old did Mohammed receive his first divine revelation in the solitude of the mountains near Mecca, that he had a mission to fulfil, to arouse men from their sins, their superstition, their ignorance, to thunder into their ears a message from on high and to awaken in them a living faith in the one indivisible, all-powerful and all-loving God. He went forth and taught suffering humanity the Unity of God, bringing them out of their idolatry, licentiousness and cruel ignorance, and within a short number of years he succeeded in inspiring his people with an unparalleled love and devotion to the One God.

The Muslims believe their sacred scripture the Holy Quran to be the indisputable word of God. Many noble teachings are set in this book, which, owing to its completeness, is treated by the Muslims as a Book of Law. It encourages science and learning, it instils in man the sense of personal responsibility for the good and evil done in this world inasmuch as the soul never dies. It teaches men to respect women, and to give honour to them. It teaches the necessity of prayer and charity; in short, all forms of righteousness, love and self-surrender to the One God without a second.

The first object of Mohammed was to spread the knowledge of God, and to encourage the pursuit of knowledge. He proclaimed that the acquisition of knowledge is a duty incumbent on every Muslim, male or female. In order to have a sound knowledge of God and religion, man must first have a sound knowledge of worldly things to realize how many are His blessings. His teachings brought about a complete transformation of Arabia, and from that time science and learning of all kind spread and began to flourish throughout Arabia, and the greatest contribution of Islam to the world is the encouragement which it has given to science and art, and the present-day scientist owes very much to the early Arabian investigators. Europe in the Middle Ages was steeped in the grossest ignorance. At that time in Christendom science was unknown, astronomy and mathematics had vanished, chemistry had not risen from its Egyptian tomb. It was then that knowledge was brought to Europe by Islam.

All knowledge that flourished in Europe from the tenth century was originally derived from the Arabian schools, and it is the Spanish Saracens who may be looked upon as the Fathers of European philosophy. They founded universities and colleges for the teaching of Theism, science, mathematics, philosophy, medicine, astronomy, commerce, engineering, agriculture, etc. Some of the famous seats of science.
